++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A cloudy, breezy day with some outbreaks of light rain is expected across N.Ireland, northwest England and western Scotland. Some early fog patches are forecast over central and southern England and Wales, but these should clear by mid-morning. Otherwise it should be dry and rather warm with some sunny spells and light winds.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Rather cloudy in general with a little light rain or drizzle in places, most likely over northern and western Scotland, and also on Saturday over central and eastern England. Temperatures will be above normal, and rather warm in the brighter spots, with mostly light winds.
