++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Today parts of eastern England will be cloudy with outbreaks of rain. Elsewhere some sunny intervals, but scattered heavy showers will break out. Tonight rain in eastern England will spread slowly into the Midlands. Elsewhere any showers will die away to leave a mainly dry night.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Rain in parts of the Midlands and Wales on Saturday will gradually peter out. There will be scattered showers in the southwest but most other places will be dry and bright. On Sunday southern and eastern areas will be warm, dry and bright but there will be a little rain further north and west.
