++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

Low cloud, mist and fog will be slow to clear across parts central and eastern England in particular, but most parts of England, Wales and northern Scotland should see some sunshine, at least by the afternoon. More generally cloudy across central parts of Scotland into Northern Ireland, with occasional rain or showers. Generally remaining mild, with light winds.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Outbreaks of rain will become heavier and more widespread on Monday as the weather front responsible slowly moves eastwards, although eastern areas should remain dry until late on. On Tuesday, eastern parts will see spells of rain, but some sunshine further west.
