

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Wednesday 25 Jul 2012

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Some rain in northern England at first. Otherwise a mostly dry day, with hot, sunny weather across the south. Cloudier further north, although still warm with sunny spells for many. Humid overnight in the south. Fog and low cloud will develop in places, particularly across central and eastern parts of the UK and southwest England.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Hot again in the south on Thursday. The risk of a sharp shower in the Midlands or Wales, with cloudier conditions further north giving some rain. Some rain across central Britain on Friday. Elsewhere very warm with sunny spells, although an increasing risk of showers.
