Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rather cloudy and cool for much of the UK, with rain or showers affecting all parts at times. The wet weather will be coupled with strong winds across southern and western UK, perhaps touching gale-force around exposed coasts and higher ground. The brightest conditions are likely in both northeastern Britain and the far south of England.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Remaining cloudy, cool and unsettled. Spells of rain for many parts on Monday will become more showery into Tuesday, with somewhat drier conditions later following on from the west. Brisk winds in southern and western UK should ease a little over the same period.
