++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
it will be cloudy with persistent and occasionally heavy rain affecting much of northern and western Britain, especially over hills of southern Scotland and northern England and Wales, with gales possible in the exposed northwest. Drier and brighter in northern Scotland and also along southern coastal areas of England.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

On Wednesday outbreaks of rain will become confined to Northern Ireland, northern England and Scotland, with further heavy bursts over Scottish hills. The rest of England and Wales will be dry with bright or sunny spells. Rain at times in north on Thursday as cloud spreads southwards to England and Wales.
