Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be further outbreaks of rain across eastern England initially tomorrow morning, though this will tend to ease during the morning. However, it will remain mainly cloudy and humid through the rest of the day. Further north and west it will be mainly dry and warm with sunny spells but rain will reach the far northwest by the evening.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
There will be a mixture of sunshine and showers for many on Saturday, perhaps locally heavy across some eastern parts. Rain across the northwest will edge southeastwards through Saturday evening, reaching southeast England by Sunday. Fresher conditions will then follow.
