++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
After a bright start, it will turn cloudier in Northern Ireland and western Scotland, with a few spots of rain or drizzle later. Elsewhere, it will be another bright, warm and sunny day, but perhaps a little cloudier in the far southeast. It should feel cooler around coastal areas as sea breezes develop.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Northwestern areas will be occasionally cloudy with some rain or showers during Wednesday, whilst staying dry and sunny further south. It will become cloudier for most during Thursday with a few showers around, but also some sunny intervals, especially in the southeast where it will remain dry.
