++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Largely fine across Scotland and South West England with some spells of warm sunshine. Elsewhere, a mainly cloudy picture, especially through the morning, but the cloud should break in places to allow some brightness. Through the afternoon, scattered showers may affect parts of England and Wales, especially later in the day. Light winds.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Through Thursday, rain will affect much of southern UK as well as parts of Scotland, but it should be largely dry and bright elsewhere. It will be a largely cloudy picture on Friday with rain or showers for many, showers wintry across higher ground in the north.
