++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A much brighter, drier day in the west and northwest, but scattered showers in Northern Ireland and western Scotland. There will be cloud and outbreaks of rain through parts of central and eastern England, however, mostly sunny and warm in far southeast of England and parts of East Anglia.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Dry and fine for many, but scattered showers in Northern Ireland and Scotland, and an increasing risk of thundery rain or showers spreading into the southeast and East Anglia by Friday. Warm in the south with light winds, temperatures nearer normal in the northwest.
