++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Blustery showers will continue in western parts of the UK, with rain and hill snow gradually clearing from northeastern Scotland. Much of central and eastern Britain will be dry and bright but cloud and rain will spread across southwestern areas in the evening. Winds will slowly ease across most areas through the course of the day.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Early rain in the south of the UK will clear on Monday morning, leaving a largely dry and fine day with plenty of sunshine and much lighter winds. However, unsettled, wet and windy weather will return on Tuesday as rain spreads from the west.
