Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain and gales soon clearing Shetland. Rain clearing southeast England by midday, otherwise a day of showers and sunny spells. The best of the sunshine will be in the east while showers are prolonged and squally over northwest Scotland, with gale force southerly winds. Some heavy showers also over the southwest.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Showery over western Scotland on Wednesday while more cloudy over England and Wales, with rain in the south. Bright or sunny elsewhere. Fine and bright on Thursday, then rain and strong winds reaching north and west by evening. Quite windy on Friday with showers and sunny spells.
