++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Largely cloudy with outbreaks of rain or drizzle in places, but some brighter spells may develop in places. Heavier outbreaks of rain may spread to the far west of Britain later. Brisk southeasterly winds in the west but mild everywhere.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Rain across parts of southwest England, Wales, northwest England and southern and eastern Scotland on Thursday, the rain heaviest during the morning, but gradually easing later. Elsewhere, it should stay dry with bright spells. Largely cloudy but generally staying dry on Friday. However, some rain will spread to western Britain as brighter skies develop in southeast England. Staying very mild.
