Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A few early mist or fog patches should soon burn away, then another hot and sunny day for many. However, still rather cloudy in the far northwest, with outbreaks of rain at times. An isolated thundery shower is possible in southeastern areas of England in the afternoon.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Most places will be dry, fine and very warm throughout both days. It will be cloudier in far northwestern Britain on Thursday, with occasional drizzle, but even here should become dry, fine and warm on Friday. Very isolated heavy showers are possible at times too.
