Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A large part of the UK will see a dry day with some good spells of sunshine.
However, a few light showers in the north-west during the morning, with cloud thickening throughout the day across Northern Ireland Scotland and with rain spreading in here during the evening.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
The rain in the west will edge further eastwards on Tuesday into other northwestern parts of the UK with some thundery showers breaking out ahead of the main rainband in southern England. Fine, sunny and very warm in the east. This thundery rainband will push eastwards through Wednesday across all areas.
