

Storm Jake

2 March 2016 - Storm Jake saw strong winds across south-west England and Wales with a peak gust of 83 mph recorded at Mace Head.

Storm Jake impacts

Impacts were most widely felt across South Wales and South-west England with power outages, falling trees and tiles blown from houses causing disruption and some road closures.

Storm Jake - Maximum gust speeds (mph)

| Site Name            | Area            | Max Gust (mph) |
|----------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| Mace Head            | Devon           | 83             |
| Aberdaron            | North Wales     | 81             |
| Mumbles Head         | West Glamorgan  | 77             |
| Needles, Old Battery | Isle of Wight   | 77             |
| Isle of Portland     | Dorset          | 75             |
| Aberporth            | South Wales     | 74             |
| Pembry Sands         | South Wales     | 69             |
| Jersey               | Channel Islands | 69             |

Storm Jake satellite imagery