++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a rather cloudy day across the far north and parts of the south tomorrow with rain at times. Becoming brighter and drier though across the rest of the country with spells of sunshine, the best of which will be across Northern Ireland and southern Scotland.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Largely bright and dry Tuesday across much of England and Wales with some good spells of sunshine developing. Elsewhere will see outbreaks of rain gradually spread in from the west throughout the day accompanied by a strengthening wind. The rain spreading to all parts Wednesday giving a rather wet and windy day.
