Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Rain, locally heavy and thundery, will spread across Wales and western England during Monday. Scattered showers are expected in the Scottish borders and over eastern England in the morning with fine weather elsewhere, but showers will develop more widely during the afternoon. Generally rather warm.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Mostly cloudy with patchy rain across Scotland and northern England. Brighter further south with sunny spells and showers, heavy and thundery at times on Tuesday. Cloud and patchy, light rain will head southeast across the British Isles during Wednesday. Dry with some sunny spells and isolated showers ahead and behind that cloud. Generally rather warm.
