++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Another showery day, with the heaviest and most frequent showers in eastern parts of the UK. Here the showers may become slow moving and thundery, with a risk of hail. Western areas should see more in the way of sunny spells, with showers generally lighter than previous days.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

A bright start to Tuesday for many. Showers in northeastern parts of the UK may be heavy at times throughout the day. Northern Ireland and southwestern Britain will start cloudier, with rain spreading eastwards across central and southern parts of the UK. Becoming mainly dry, with bright or sunny spells on Wednesday.
