Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It'll be a bright start tomorrow morning. However, some heavy and thundery showers will develop across southern areas. Into the afternoon, these showers should push northwards allowing more in the way of dry and bright weather to develop in the south. Another very warm day for the time of year.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Friday will be sunny and warm, with just the odd shower across northeast Scotland. It will be a close night with some heavy, possibly thundery showers moving north across many areas. Showers will linger through Saturday morning, though it will be drier into the afternoon with further warm sunshine .
