Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southern parts of England and Wales will be cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavy and persistent in places. Northern England and North Wales, along with Northern Ireland, should be brighter but scattered showers are likely in western areas. Showers will also affect some western parts of Scotland but eastern Scotland will be mainly dry and bright.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Much of England and Wales will be cloudy on Sunday with showers or rain. Northern parts of the UK should be drier and brighter initially but rain is likely later. Most places becoming wet and windy later on Monday after a dry, bright morning.
