Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunshine and showers for tomorrow. Showers heavy for some with thunder and lightning. For southeast England and northern Scotland showers will merge together to give some longer spells of rain, this lasting for most of the day in the extreme north.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

A fresher day on Wednesday but drier with only isolated showers. Some brightness around the showers, the best of this in western areas. Thursday is looking like another fine day across the UK after a chilly start. Staying mostly dry for all with the best of the sunshine for southwest England.
