++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A brighter and fresher day in Northern Ireland, Scotland and northern England with bright or sunny spells and scattered showers, some of these will be heavy in the west. In the south of England, and Wales, it will be mainly dry with only isolated light showers, and bright with sunny spells developing, especially in the southwest.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will be mostly dry and bright on Monday with scattered showers in the north, then rain spreading into western areas later. Rain at times on Tuesday, but drier, brighter and warm in the southeast for a good part of the day.
