Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be another hot and sunny day for most of the UK. Any low cloud that developed overnight in eastern parts should quickly disperse. It is likely to be cooler and cloudier in the far north of Scotland, where there is a chance of some patchy drizzle.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Wednesday is likely to be a little cloudier and less warm than earlier in the week. Eastern parts especially will be less warm, with the best of the sunny and warmer weather in the west. It will become increasingly warm and sunny again from Thursday. The winds should remain light throughout.
