** Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Southern England, the Midlands and East Anglia are expected to have some very wet and very windy weather with heavy rain during the morning. Gales will develop in places and may cause structural damage before clearer, less windy weather gradually follows from the west. In Northern England, Northern Ireland and Southern Scotland, winds will be lighter, although some rain is likely, especially in Northern England, before it turns brighter with scattered showers during the day. Otherwise in Northern Scotland, there will be sunny intervals and showers with some turning wintry.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
It will stay unsettled with some strong winds at first.
