Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A fine dry sunny start to the day in some eastern areas but more in the way of sunshine and showers elsewhere. Very windy in western areas with gales around exposed coasts. Gradually becoming more cloudy through the afternoon with rain expected in the west by evening turning heavy in places by the end of the day.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Cloud and rain clears away east Tuesday morning to be followed by scattered showers in western areas, but turning dry and bright for a time in the east and north. Wednesday sees a further pulse of Heavy rain pushing across from the west.
