Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southeast England will start off rather cloudy with some occasional light rain or drizzle, and this will slowly clear away through the day. Elsewhere there will be a mixture of sunshine and showers. The showers will be heaviest and most frequent across northern England, Northern Ireland and Scotland, where there is a risk of thunder. Windy in the north.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:
Still windy in the north on Monday, with showers slowly easing, although further rain returning from the southwest on Tuesday. Across southern Britain, the start of next week looks mostly dry with variable amounts of cloud and some sunny spells.
