++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Scotland will remain cloudy with rain at times, this persistent and heavy across northwestern hills. Elsewhere, it will be mostly cloudy, but dry, though a little drizzle is likely over some hills in the north and east. It will be quite mild, but rather windy.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

A cloudy start, but sunnier skies will spread to most places on Sunday. After a cold and frosty night Sunday night, milder weather with outbreaks of mostly light rain or drizzle will spread eastwards to most places on Monday. It will become milder and rather windy again.
