++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A dull, cloudy start across many eastern districts with some rain. Western areas will start much brighter but with a scattering of showers. During the day the rain in the east will gradually clear with all parts seeing some sunshine and scattered showers. Later in the afternoon most places should become dry. Not feeling too bad in the sunshine.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

Wet, very windy conditions will move quickly north across all parts during Sunday with drier, brighter conditions following from the south and west during the afternoon. Another windy day on Monday with bright spells and scattered blustery showers.
