++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Changeable and often cloudy with showers or perhaps some longer spells of rain as well. Most of the rain across western Scotland, also many southwestern areas of Britain but even here a few brighter spells as well. Winds moderate southwesterly, locally fresh in exposed areas. Temperatures close to or a little above normal.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Continuing changeable with showers across northern areas on Friday but some longer spells of rain across central and southern areas. Becoming drier during Saturday with lighter winds, some sunny spells, but with further rain in the far north at first, and with southeastern areas rather cloudy.
