

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1945 on Sunday 08 May 2016

++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Through tomorrow, outbreaks of cloud and rain will gradually spread across the southwest into parts of Wales and England, turning heavy and perhaps thundery in places. Meanwhile, central and northern parts of the UK will remain generally dry, warm and sunny, particularly away from the east coast.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Tuesday and Wednesday will see heavy rain in the south of the UK gradually move its way northwards. However, for the rest of the country it will stay dry, particularly for Scotland and Northern Ireland where it will also be bright and warm.
