Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Many parts of the UK will see a mixture of sunny spells and scattered heavy showers, these showers most likely during the afternoon. Driest and brightest conditions across the south-west. Rain will affect the far east of England for much of the day. Feeling warm in sunnier spells.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Cloudy across some south and eastern areas on Saturday with the odd shower likely. Largely fine elsewhere, brightest across the west of the UK and Northern Ireland. Dry for most on Sunday with sunny spells across eastern areas but rain spreading across Scotland and into western parts of the UK.
