Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Monday: Cloudy, and becoming mild and windy in most places, with gales developing along western and perhaps southern coasts. Northern Ireland dull with occasional rain. Rain will spread northeast across England and Wales, reaching northeast Scotland by late afternoon, with bright/sunny intervals ahead of the rain. Cloudy weather will following to England and Wales, bringing patchy drizzle to exposed coasts and hills.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Tuesday: Windy, gales likely along southern and western coasts. Mild, locally very mild in the south. Rain, occasionally heavy, for most places, although becoming drier across Northern Ireland, and later eastern Scotland.

Wednesday: Windy, mild, rain spreading northeast.
