++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain or showers will spread across western Scotland, Northern Ireland, and northern England with some bright spells in the far north. Otherwise many areas of England and Wales will be dry with some pleasantly warm sunny spells, perhaps with an odd shower in places, more especially across the Welsh hills and central areas.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Dry and bright in the south and east at first on Monday, but rain and freshening winds will spread across the country later on Monday. Southern and eastern areas will be dry, warm and sunny on Tuesday with rain in the north.
