Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and patchy rain will linger across the far southeast of England into the afternoon. Otherwise it will be breezy with sunny spells and isolated blustery showers for most of the UK, showers will be heavier and most frequent in the north and west. Feeling cooler than of late, particularly in the breeze.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

A mix of sunshine and showers on both Monday and Tuesday, the showers will be most frequent around coasts and locally heavy, particularly in western areas. It will become drier later on Tuesday. Turning colder through the period with overnight frosts likely, particularly in the north.
