Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Another hot and sunny day in southern England with refreshing sea breezes around some coasts. Elsewhere, after early drizzle on some western coasts clears away, another generally dry and bright day with variable amounts of cloud and spells of warm sunshine. Light and variable winds.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Dry sunny and very warm on Thursday for most of England and Wales, although there is a chance of an isolated heavy shower in Wales and the Midlands. Further north, somewhat cloudier but bright at times. Still very warm in the south on Friday with sunny spells, although with a greater chance of scattered showers.
