++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southern England largely dry and warm with some brightness. Elsewhere, cloudy with outbreaks of rain, persistent and heavy at times across Northern Ireland, much of Scotland, northern England and north Wales. Some light rain later on for southwest England and the Midlands. Temperatures nearer average in the cloudier and wetter areas with a light to moderate southwesterly breeze.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Occasional rain or showers for much of the UK over the weekend, with the chance of more frequent showers for Scotland and Northern Ireland on Saturday. Temperatures remaining around the seasonal average with light or moderate west or northwesterly winds.
