Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of central and eastern England and eastern Scotland will have a rather grey morning with mist, fog, or low cloud, especially in areas close to the North Sea coast. Western Scotland and Northern Ireland will be cloudy with some rain, while elsewhere will be sunny. Through the day all areas should become sunny and warm.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Saturday will see low cloud and fog in many eastern areas slowly clearing through the day, while western parts will be fine and sunny. It will again feel warm. Sunday will be a little cooler with cloud on eastern coasts but fine again elsewhere.
