Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain in the southeast will slowly clear, otherwise blustery showers, heaviest and most frequent for western and northern areas. Very windy with widespread gales, and a swathe of severe gales crossing northwest Wales and northern England, though winds will ease over parts of Scotland.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Blustery showers on Saturday, occasionally heavy, and wintry on some hills. Winds generally much less strong than Friday. Further blustery showers at first on Sunday, but becoming drier and brighter for a time in the afternoon, before wet and windy weather returns overnight and into Monday.
