Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England will stay dry with sunny spells, these drier and brighter conditions spreading so some central and eastern parts of England after a cloudy and damp start. Wales and southwestern areas will stay mostly cloudy with drizzle at times especially on western coasts and hills.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Monday quite windy with rain at times, the heaviest rain in the north, the best chance of any drier and brighter spells in the south. Tuesday drier but often cloudy, some showers in the northwest, the best of any sunny spells in the south and east.
