++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rather cloudy for much of England and Wales, especially the central swathe, with outbreaks of rain for some northern counties and parts of north and west Wales. Some bright or sunny spells for Northern Ireland and Scotland with the odd shower. The far south and southeast of England will remain dry, fine and very warm.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Wet and windy conditions will spread southeastwards on Friday, though the far southeast should remain dry until late in the day. Rain will clear southeastwards on Saturday, to be followed by fresher conditions with sunny spells and some sharp showers.
