++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy start to Thursday with outbreaks of rain affecting most areas, especially in the west where it will be locally wet and windy. Eastern areas will also have some showery outbreaks of rain, although here it will become mainly dry and bright later.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

On Friday a band of locally heavy rain will edge slowly eastwards across the United Kingdom, but drier and brighter conditions with sunny spells will follow into western areas. There will be further rain at times in eastern areas on Saturday, but further west it will be a day of sunshine and showers.
