Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Northern and western areas will start cloudy and windy with outbreaks of rain, some heavy. The rain will slip southeast to sit across the north and west of England and Wales during the afternoon. Meanwhile, southeast England will see some very warm sunshine develop after a cloudy start, and brighter, showery weather will move into Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Central and southeastern England will be rather cloudy but warm on Sunday. Elsewhere there will be sunshine and showers. Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern parts of England will have blustery showers on Monday. Southern England and Wales will be mostly fine.
