Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Areas of low cloud, mist and patchy fog will lift through the morning to leave a largely fine day with variable amounts of cloud and bright or sunny spells.
Becoming cloudy over northwest Scotland though, with some rain possible later.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Cloud and rain across northern parts on Friday will slowly push south.
Elsewhere, variable cloud and sunny spells, once any low cloud and mist clears.
Cloud and showery rain over parts of southern Scotland and Northern England on Saturday will continue to push southeastwards. Ahead of this, variable cloud and sunny spells. To the north, sunny spells and showers.
