++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy and windy day for all of the UK tomorrow with a band of heavy rain moving northeastwards across northern England and Scotland, turning wintry at times in the morning with some accumulations on high ground. Elsewhere, it'll be mostly dry, apart from one or two spots of drizzly rain.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

Wednesday will start off cloudy and dry for most but wet and windy weather will be slowly moving southeastwards, reaching southern areas on Thursday. Otherwise, Thursday will be breezy with some sunshine and showers before further unsettled weather arrives in the northwest on Friday.
