++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and scattered light showers over central and eastern England should clear in the morning, otherwise a dry and sunny start. Cloud and rain will spread east across Northern Ireland and Scotland, reaching the west of England and Wales by evening, accompanied by strengthening southwesterly winds.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Cloudy and very windy over Scotland and Northern Ireland, with blustery showers becoming prolonged during Saturday. England and Wales should be drier, though with showers in the west. Eastern districts should stay dry with good spells of sunshine on Friday, perhaps more cloudy on Saturday. Increasingly windy.
