Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain will move through Scotland, Wales, and northern England in the morning, becoming lighter and more showery as it does so. The afternoon in these areas will be brighter with a few showers, which will be lighter than those of today. The rest of the country will have sunny spells, with a few well-scattered light showers in places.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Wednesday and Thursday will both have showers. These may have some hail and thunder at times, but many areas will miss the showers and stay dry. Otherwise, lengthy periods of sunshine, and feeling cool and fresh in a brisk westerly wind.
