++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Cloud and rain will clear the southeast through the morning, to leave largely dry and bright day for most, with sunny spells. Scattered showers will develop however, mainly in the north and west. It will become windy in the north, where the showers may occasionally be heavy and fall as snow over the highest ground. .

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Blustery showers interspersed with sunny spells will persist through Friday and Saturday, with possibly longer spells of rain for a time on Saturday. It will feel cool in a brisk wind. The best of any dry, bright weather will be in the east.
