Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be sunny intervals and blustery showers Wednesday, the showers wintry over hills in the north and west. Cloud and rain will spread to Wales and many parts of England in the evening. Strong to gale force winds in the north will slowly ease from the south.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

On Thursday, more cloud and heavy rain spreading to all parts, falling as snow over hills on Scotland. Winds will be strong to gale force throughout. On Friday, cloudy, wet conditions will turn showery with sunny intervals. Elsewhere, sunny spells and showers will prevail, the showers tending to hill snow over Scotland.
