Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Scotland will be mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heaviest and most persistent over hills in the northwest. Western parts of England and Wales and Northern Ireland should be mostly dry but with a little light rain possible in more exposed areas. Elsewhere a dry day with some sunshine and feeling warm with light winds.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Northern and western areas will see further rain at times, locally heavy. Elsewhere it should be dry with some sunshine on Saturday then an increasing risk of rain or showers on Sunday, perhaps heavy and thundery. Temperatures near average but very warm in the south.
